

In Flight Pampering

BLUE STAR JETS NOW OFFERS ONE-OF-A-KIND AIR SALON IN THE SKY.

IMAGINE EMERGING FROM A LONG FLIGHT FEELING ENERGIZED AND looking beautiful. Blue Star Jets now features Air Salon, an in-flight anti-aging and design spa featuring top nutritionist Oz Garcia and stylist-to-the-stars Edward Tricomi.

Clients can take advantage of customized anti-aging cuisine, and personalized menus based on two-hour consultations with Garcia, a world-renowned nutritionist and longevity specialist. They can also get cutting-edge magazine-cover-worthy beauty treatments, massages, cuts and styles by Edward Tricomi (seen on the hit reality show America's Top Model). Onboard relaxation techniques are also available to reenergize weary executives, rock stars and celebrities and elevate their spirits.

Blue Star Jets menus are prepared by your personal flight attendant in full galley facilities on board a Gulfstream III. Healthy and scrumptious cuisine choices begin with breakfasts like: scrambled eggs with slow-roasted tomatoes and marjoram, creamed trout toasts with apple, or warm strawberry breakfast "shortcakes". Delectable lunch selections include crab bundles with avocado-ginger sauce or chicken and cauliflower salad with grainy mustard. Tasty dinner choices include: balsamic grilled lamb chops, roasted salmon with fresh herbs or spiced turkey kebabs with curried slaw with fruit and pistachios. All served on the finest china with imported waters served in crystal while tracking the Airshow 2000. After eating, rest in the comfort of a cozy, fully reclining bed.

Private jet rates start at $1,700 an hour and go up to $5,900 an hour, and are based on the size of jet and desired destination. Air Salon services rates are separate from jet prices and range from $3,000 up to $12,000 for a complete beauty package which includes nutritional services, beauty, cut and styling, massage, manicure and pedicure.

Blue Star Jets can also arrange for limousine transportation, helicopter and 4- and 5-star lodging at the finest destinations in the world. Getting where you want exactly when you want is a luxury to some people. To others, it is a necessity. Blue Star Jets can deliver a jet anywhere, anytime with just four hours notice.
